Located in Weston, Missouri, family-owned Tin Kitchen occupies the old Rumpel Hardware building on Main Street in the downtown historic district. Built in 1842, the building has been lovingly restored to preserve all of its warmth and charm. The dining rooms showcase the original pressed-tin ceilings and walls.

Tin Kitchen's menu features pecan-wood-smoked barbecue meats straight from the pit. Slow-smoked for up to 16 hours, Pulled pork, brisket, chicken, and contest-style BBQ ribs are among the favorites. Grilled meats and fish, Southern-style side dishes, fresh, crisp salads, and mouth-watering desserts round out the menu.

Open on the weekends, TK2 - The Public House at Tin Kitchen, offers craft beers on tap along with a full bar featuring a great selection of wine, spirits, and craft-cocktails. Catch all of the sports-action on the flat screen.
